innovative learning environments

The aim of the conference

Technology in Support of Innovative learning

- Share, understand, collaborate and co-produce new ways to increase and enhance learning experiences of both regular and refugee students across Europe and the rest of the world
- Combine findings of empirical research with experiences from practice by sharing tools, hands-on examples and teaching methodologies

Subtheme 1: Teacher education & digital technology

Why?

Digital technology increasingly becomes an essential component of the working practice of teachers.

This sub-theme concentrates on conceptual, theoretical and empirical research related to digital technologies in education, primarily through the spectrum of teacher education

How?

What?

Innovative tools, such as Lesson Study, E-learning, Gamification, Virtual Reality and Augmented Reality etc.

Subtheme 2: Professional development of teachers

Why?

Professional development of teachers fosters and provides support for teacher quality and in turn contributes to powerful school communities and strengthens educational quality

We encourage researchers to share findings or discussion topics that contribute to insights in various ways of professional development of teacher

How?

What?

We especially welcome contributions that relate to the use of technology and the creation of innovative learning environments

Subtheme 3: Refugee education

Why?

59 million displaced population worldwide. 14% of young people in poor countries complete their studies up to higher education and this figure is down to 1% for refugee children

To address this global challenge on refugee education, we hope this conference theme will bring critical awareness as to how the role of teachers and teaching needs to evolve
